Energizing Displays

Madix understands electronics stores. A leading innovator in the store fixture industry, Madix has experience answering electronics retailers' merchandising problems. Creating a unique in-store experience is one of the most difficult challenges faced by electronics retailers today. To encourage customer loyalty, retailers need to ameliorate the in-store experience. Make the most of your stores with eye-catching signage that is built into the fixtures. Educate shoppers with interactive digital displays that entertain and encourage sales.

Sturdy & Stylish

When displaying large merchandise that requires modular power, retailers need fixtures that are flexible. Turn to Madix for sturdy yet stylish displays that best utilize your sales floor. Madix's product lines merchandise large electronics such as televisions and stereo systems. To hinder theft and reduce shrinkage, Madix manufactures specialty accessories and durable security cases that lock up valuable merchandise of all sizes.
